

Southeast Texas Dulcimer Friends

Meeting the second Saturday of each month
Rosedale Baptist Church, 7110 Concord Road, Beaumont, Texas
1:30 – until

March 2011

From The Prez:

Let's jam! We had another good meeting this month. Good music from our new music director, good food, and good friends. It's not just a saying I put at the end of my newsletter notes: I really do look forward to our next meeting.

I'm thankful my family is able to join many of the plays at the nursing homes and assisted living centers. It is a blessing for the residents to have people come and spend time visiting and entertaining them. And I am always blessed by the audience which appreciates us so much. If you haven't been to one of these plays, then you really should come join us at one of them and see what I mean.

I'm looking forward to our next meeting.

Steve Clark

Darrell's Dulci-News:

We showed up in great numbers for the Silsbee Oaks Nursing Home play. When the Clark family shows up, as they did in Silsbee, we feel blessed to have a banjo player and a bass fiddle player joining us as well as all the other players.

There was a good turnout, also, at the Dowlen Oaks Nursing Home (aka Emeritus).

We had a good turnout for our last meeting! Lots of good jamming, and as always, lots of good eating! Some of us continued on Friday with a great jam at the home of Keith & Shelia Faske in Rose City. We ate well there, also!

It is such a blessing to make plays, jam, and eat with such wonderful people as those of the SETX Dulcimer Friends group.

Norma's Notes:

Hello Dulcimer Friends,
Wow! What an experience my first lesson with Southeast Texas Dulcimer Friends was!! Thank you for your help in teaching me how to teach you. There's only one way to go right now and that is UP.

Our tune for April is an easy little fiddle tune about a rabbit -- no, it's not the Easter bunny. The hammered dulcimers are going to break away from the main group for lesson time. This will give them the opportunity to learn and share in a better setting for them.

I'm looking forward to our club gathering on April 9th and GETTIN' US SOME RABBITS!!
